The Aims and Objects of the Association

The Association will achieve its aim primarily by supporting healthcare professionals to work out of the insights of anthroposophy. In particular:

1. Support the development of a network of therapeutic centres to provide access points to anthroposophic health care.
2. To provide collegueship and community to anthroposophic health care practitioners.
3. To provide information and resources that support practitioners and patients to meet and work together effectively within therapeutic relationships.
